

Center for Global Understanding Supplement - Summer 2012

Name: _____

School: _____

The Center for Global Understanding (CFGU) provides a platform to cultivate the next generation of American leaders through internships in Washington D.C. and continued training and education on leadership development. We offer scholarships to minimize the financial burden placed on under-represented minority students participating in our Internship program. This program is developed in partnership with The Washington Center (TWC). It encourages students to grow as professionals in any field they choose, develop leadership skills and become civically engaged active members of the society.

In order to be considered for scholarship assistance available through CFGU, you must provide:

1. A statement describing how your participation may benefit your local community and the United States as a whole. Responses should be no more than one page in length, single spaced with size 12 font. Please attach a typed response to this form.
2. A letter of recommendation addressed to CFGU from a local Muslim American community leader, a Professor at your college/university or an Imam of your mosque.

All students are encouraged to review the required agreements and financial policies found on The Washington Center's (TWC) application.

All applicants for CFGU financial assistance are required to check the box and sign below indicating they have read and understood the following agreement.

I agree to attend mandatory meetings and other activities by CFGU in the evening or weekends during my internship.

I agree to commit 40 hours of community service by November 15, 2012. I will submit a 3 page essay summarizing my volunteer experience. (Please identify the organization name and contact information of supervisor at your volunteer site.) I understand that failure to do this will result in financial consequences: I will be billed and will owe the scholarship amount given to me by CFGU.

I authorize The Washington Center to forward my program application and all supporting documents to the Center for Global Understanding for consideration of financial assistance.

I authorize The Center for Global Understanding to share my application with potential donors for funding and use my name and bio for its outreach and marketing programs.
